

Parenting help that meets at the school gate

Right across Australia, schools turn to Parenting Ideas for resources that teachers can access and share with parents in their school community. They trust us for informative, expert content that they can include in their parent-teacher meetings, school newsletters, websites, social media and more.

As a trusted source of parenting education and support, Parenting Ideas offers memberships developed specifically for schools. Through our memberships, we provide:

Webinar vouchers for parents

Your school will receive vouchers to attend our popular parenting webinars at no cost. These can be redeemed by all the parents and all the teachers at your school. These webinars are sold to the general public at $37 per person, so this offers fantastic value to your entire school community.

Professional learning for teachers

We offer unlimited access to professional learning webinars for teachers at your school, valued at $57 per person, per webinar. We also offer professional learning modules and workshops for individual or whole-staff development.

Library of articles

We have a large collection of more than 180 parenting articles, all of which can be shared with your school community. More than 40 new articles are published annually. All articles are beautifully designed, so with just a few clicks you can download a PDF to share, publish or print.

Videos & eGuides

We provide a library of videos and downloadable eGuides that can help parents to build their skills and confidence in effective parenting. We cover a large range of topics such as positive parenting, emotional intelligence, resilience, friendships, confidence, wellbeing and mental health.

Hear from the experts

We offer three types of memberships for schools. They are all designed to help you support your school community. All of our memberships give you access to contributions from renowned experts such as Michael Grose, Maggie Dent, Dr Justin Coulson, Dr Deborah Gilboa, Tim Jezard, Karen Tui Boyes, Adam Voigt and more.
