

CORPUS LINEA

a new dance work from LJProjects

the new Extensive Youth
Dance Work
by LJProjects

fusing dance and text
under the stars

venue
montessori gardens
Stark lane, Forest Glen

AUGUST 17
5 PM & 7 PM

 trybooking.com
EVENT TICKETING MADE EASY

LJPROJECTS.org

Proudly supported by Sunshine Coast Council Grants Program

LJ PROJECTS PRESENTS

corpus linea

A new extensive youth dance work

2 SHOWS ONLY

⇒ August 17, 2019

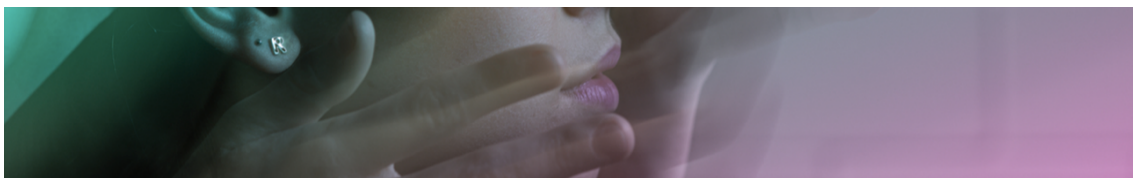

⇒ 5pm and 7pm

⇒ Montessori Gardens – Stark Lane, Forest Glen QLD.

⇒ BOOK NOW

<https://www.trybooking.com/BDQUV>

In its 4th year, LJ projects has established itself as the regions' resident youth dance collective. Local Director and Choreographer Melissa Lanham has brought together 70 dancers and actors from across the Sunshine Coast to create a visual treat that fuses dance and text under the stars; recreating the way in which our daily body language shapes the way we communicate...

THE ARTISTS

Director/choreographer - Melissa Lanham

A seasoned artist and choreographer of over twenty years, both nationally and abroad, Melissa's work spans from Professional touring creations, Youth Dance works, Education Programs and teaching.

Assistant Choreographer - Chloe Lanham

Chloe is an Emerging dance and theatre artist having worked independently in Australia and in the UK and is a co-founder of theatre company Sticky Toffee Theatre. Chloe has returned to the Sunshine Coast to work with LJ Projects to deliver an exciting year of events.

Production Design - Travis Macfarlane

Producer - Mia Hollingworth

COLLABORATORS

Anne Fraser School of Dance, Beerwah High, Mitchelton High School, Queensland Academy Creative Industries, Sunshine Beach High and Maleny High.

FUNDING

Proudly supported by Sunshine Coast Council's funding program, Arts Queensland and auspiced through the Creative Alliance.

